232—Trees

Before a council plants vegetation, or authorises or permits the planting of vegetation, on a road, the council must (in addition to complying with any other statutory requirement)-

- a. Give consideration to whether the vegetation is, on balance, appropriate to the proposed site taking into account-
 - i. Environmental and aesthetic issues; and
 - ii. The use and construction of the road (including the potential for interference with the construction of the road or with structures (including pipes, wires, cables, fixtures, fittings or other objects) in the road); and
 - iii. Road safety matters; and
 - iv. Other matters (if any) considered relevant by the council; and
- b. If the vegetation may have a significant impact on residents, the proprietors of nearby businesses or advertisers in the area, follow the relevant steps set out in its public consultation policy.

233 – Damage

- 1) A person who, without the council’s permission, intentionally or negligently damages a road or structure (including poles, wires, cables, fixtures, fittings and other objects) belonging to the council associated with a road is liable to the council in damages.
- 2) The council may recover damages under this section in the same way as damages for a tort.
